

INTERNSHIP (INTERN)

INTERN-383 Internship Seminar (2 credits)

At her internship site, the student develops the ability to apply classroom learning to a concrete work situation and at the same time develops her skills in reflecting on and conceptualizing learning that comes from work experience. Emphasis is also placed on developing the ability to assess oneself as a key ability in "learning how to learn" from any work experience.

Prerequisite(s): PPS-229 or equivalent required.