

Spring Study Abroad Timeline

As soon as possible

- Apply for your passport
- Start saving for travel and other abroad experiences

August / September

- Research different study abroad options
- Check with your academic advisor
- Check with your financial aid advisor

October

- Declare your intent to study abroad by October 1st
- Complete the Alverno's study abroad application
- Ask faculty/staff for a recommendation

October / November

- Apply for your specific program
- Apply for study abroad scholarships
- Complete the course equivalency form with your advisor

November / December

- Determine your visa application timeline
- Research the city and country of your program
- Register for the placeholder course

Before you Leave

- Purchase your plane tickets

This is a general timeline based on the majority of external applications due dates. Your deadlines could be earlier depending on your chosen program and scholarship needs

Fall Study Abroad Timeline

As soon as possible

- Apply for your passport
- Start saving for travel and other abroad experiences

January / February

- Research different study abroad options
- Check with your academic advisor
- Check with your financial aid advisor

March

- Declare your intent to study abroad by March 15th
- Ask for a faculty recommendation
- Complete the Alverno's study abroad application

March / April

- Apply for your specific program
- Apply for study abroad scholarships
- Complete the course equivalency form with your advisor

April / May

- Determine your visa application timeline
- Research the city and country of your program
- Register for the placeholder course

Before you Leave

- Purchase your plane tickets

This is a general timeline based on the majority of external applications due dates. Your deadlines could be earlier depending on your chosen program and scholarship needs