

RESOURCE CENTER FOR WOMEN/GIRLS

The Research Center for Women and Girls (<https://www.alverno.edu/research/>) generates and applies research, develops curricula, and conducts outreach for the purpose of supporting and inspiring initiatives to improve the lives of women and girls locally and nationally.

The Research Center for Women and Girls partners with other institutions of higher education, K-12 schools, nonprofit organizations and other groups to offer the following services:

- Curriculum: The curricula provides educators and community organizations to address issues that impact women and girls, strengthening the capacity to be a resource to the community.
 - Examples: Anti-bullying, Self-Development
- Evaluation: A resource to facilitate organization and program evaluation.
 - Examples: Power2Thrive, PEARLS for Teen Girls
- Research: Creates research reports.
 - Examples: Wisconsin Women in Public Life, The Status of Girls in Wisconsin
