

MUSIC PERFORMANCE - MINOR

What you will study

If you love to sing or play an instrument, the Music Performance and Musicianship minor allows you to take private lessons to improve your performance, play or sing in ensembles, and study the fundamentals of music. The coursework stresses performance-related activities that help expand your musicianship, while classes in basic music theory and history broaden your knowledge of this art form.

Requirements

Code	Title	Credits
Program requirements
MU-102	Understanding Music Fundamentals	2
MU-270	History of Western Music	4
MU-210	Improvisational Music	2
or MU-276	Music Technology
Ensemble	Take 2 MU-130 courses (vocalists or instrumentalists)	2
Lesson	Music Lesson (vocal or instrumental)	4
MU Course option	Take MU-210 or MU-310 series course (or both MU-250 & MU-210)	3
Total Credits		17